Common Purpose Event 22/06

Sharon is a Common Purpose graduate and was delighted to be able to go back and contribute something to the course. She was invited to speak to the latest graduates and It was great to see so many people benefiting from the work Common Purpose does. As an international leadership programme they can really help build peoples' confidence and develop their skills careers.

Should we change the law on organ donation?

The Prime Minister is backing plans to change the law on organ donation. In the future it would be assumed that people have given consent for their organs to be donated unless they have signed an opt out. Is this the right approach?

Yes
