

Common Purpose

Working to Stop
Violence and Abuse

Hotline for Women
How To Register
Training
Need Help? Call
Contact

- What is Domestic Violence?
- Effects on Children
- Information for Women
- Information for Men
- What is the Common Purpose Batterer Intervention Group?
- Training and Community Education offered by Common Purpose
- How to Reach Us
- Related Links
- Home

Training & Community Education Offered by Common Purpose

Note: Adobe Acrobat Reader is required to view the following .pdf files. You can download the free version of Acrobat Reader by visiting the Adobe website via the link above.

In-service workshops and training for social and human service agencies, community groups, schools and other programs are available on a variety of topics.

 In-Service Workshops.pdf.

Certification training is available for those who want to work with batterers, or others concerned about domestic violence. Common Purpose is an accredited training agency, certified by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

 Certification Training.pdf

Click Here for Next Certification Training Dates

Intercept is the Common Purpose community education program. Specialized presentations are available for elementary, middle and high school aged youth. Programs are also available for adults in community based organizations. Contact Us for more information.

▲ TO TOP

© 2001 CommonPurpose

Common Purpose Inc.
455 Arborway
Boston, MA 02130

tel: 617-522-6500
fax: 617-522-6595
commonpurposeinc@aol.com